

ANTITRUST POLICY

In order to take advantage of the opportunities and benefits offered by the Financial Data Professional Institute (“FDPI”), an individual (the “Individual”) shall abide by the antitrust policy set forth below:

As a general rule, antitrust laws prohibit competitors, customers, and suppliers from restricting trade or seeking to create or maintain a monopoly on a certain market. As a member of FDPI, I agree not to engage in any behavior that violates antitrust laws.